Introduction

This document is the result of a process initiated in autumn 2018 with the support of Clare County Council and finished with support from Clare Local Development Company. The process leading to this plan was led by a group of local volunteers who worked closely with facilitators whose role was to guide and inform the planning process. The actions proposed in this plan have been informed by the needs, interests and concerns of those living in the area.

Members of the planning group invested a great deal of personal commitment in attending meetings, taking on tasks, and reflecting on the needs brought forward by their community. The members of the planning group were as follows:

- Tom Larkin
- Shane Greene
- Linda Hale
- Maria Keane
- Maria Kennedy
- Pamela McGrath
- Ger O'Halloran
- Joanne Perill
- Maureen Quinlan

The impact of volunteers across the broad spectrum of activities to be found in the community is enormous, and a great deal of gratitude is owed to them. Sincere appreciation is due to those who committed to this planning process.

Clooney Spancilhill

Clooney & Spancilhill are two neighbouring villages located very close to Ennis on the main road to east Clare, the Tulla Road (R352). These communities are just a 5-10 minute drive from Ennis and have little retail activity in them as a result; there are two pubs, Duggan's and Norrie Henchy's and a filling station with a local shop. Key community assets are the churches in Clooney and Maghera, Clooney National School, Clooney Quin GAA Grounds, the Clare GAA's Centre of Excellence and Rathclooney Lake (O'Brien's Big Lough) which is used for birdwatching and pike fishing. The Clooney House buildings are in ruins, but the surrounding land offers opportunity for walking routes. And Spancilhill is home to the horse fair made famous, worldwide, by the song Spancilhill.

Looking forward, the two communities are set to be adjacent to a 1 million square foot data centre located at the M18 motorway junction with the Tulla Road. Land was zoned for the data centre in March 2019. Permission has also been granted by Clare County Council for two solar farms, one in Clooney and one in Spancilhill.

This area of Clare has a rich biodiversity, including deer, pine martens, moths, lizards, butterflies, badgers, foxes, wildflowers and trees¹. Ken Bond of UCC has written about The Moths and Butterflies of Rathclooney².

The area also maintains a strong interest in traditional music and GAA.

The task of this process was to allow residents to identify aspects of community life and which could be improved upon and ways to build a strong future.

Unfortunately, the Central Statistics Office (CSO) does not provide population data by parish or townland, but CSCDG's best estimate is 750-800 people resident in Clooney Parish. Using data from Pobal maps³ the population change for the 'Small Area' containing townlands within the Spancillhill ED between 2006 and 2016 was 0.09% - less than a 1% increase. Figures in the profile that follows include estates on the edge of Ennis, these don't build a fully accurate picture of the population within the Parish boundary but are useful to consider.

³ <https://maps.pobal.ie/WebApps/DeprivationIndices/index.html> - Small Area 037145002, 2016 by Small Area layer.

In order to look at the full population profile, we can only examine data gathered by the CSO and presented by Electoral Division (ED). This analysis follows:

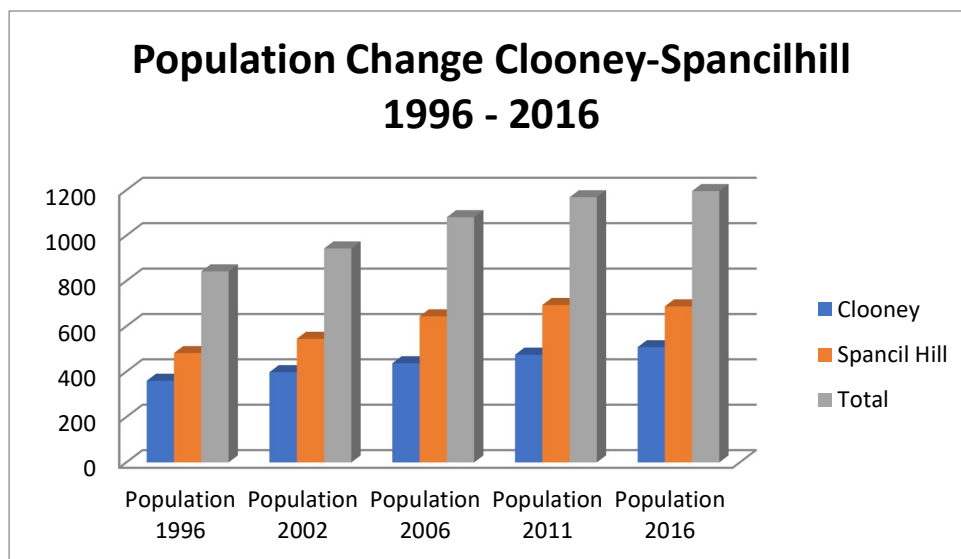

Outline maps of Clooney and Spancillhill Electoral Divisions (EDs)

Population and Population Change

The population of Clooney (Clooney and Spancillhill Electoral Divisions) as per Census 2016 is 1,196 individuals. This represents a 2.3% increase of population since the 2011 Census (n=27).

In the last twenty years (1996 – 2016), the population of the area has increased by 42% (increase equals 354 individuals), with substantial population growth in each ED.

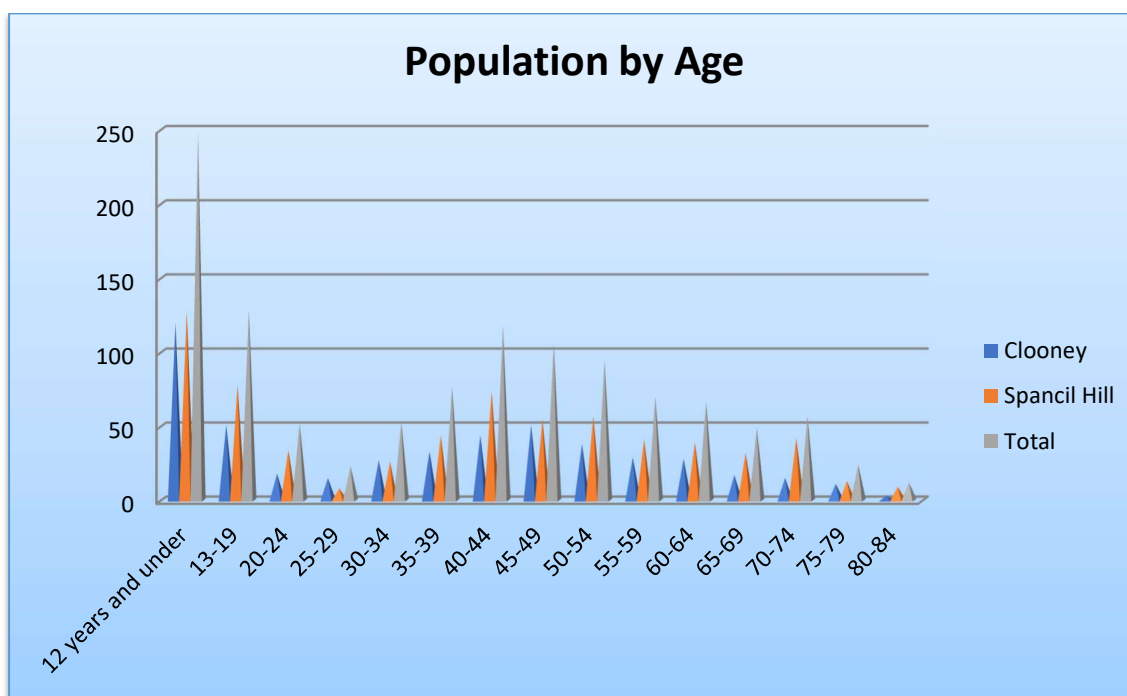

The division of male: female in 2016 is essentially 50:50 (n=613:583 respectively).

Population by Age

Age Dependency

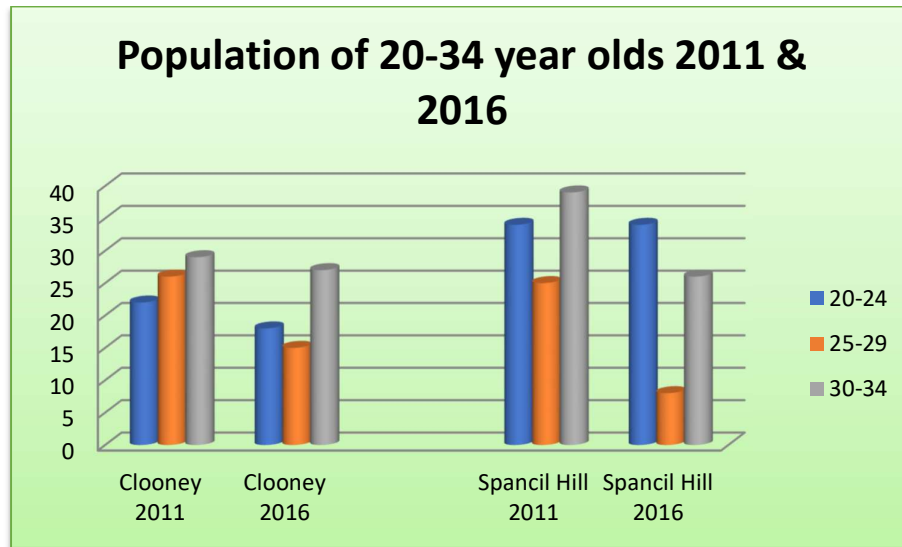

Dependents are defined for statistical purposes as people outside the normal working age of 15-64. Dependency ratios are used to give a useful indication of the age structure of a population with young (0-14) and old (65+) shown as a percentage of the population of working age (15-64) (<https://www.cso.ie/en/releasesandpublications/ep/p-cp3oy/cp3/aad/>)

In 2016, the age dependency ratio for both Clooney and Spancilhill was 37% (as per Pobal Maps) compared to a national average of 53% (CSO). Children aged under 14 years account for 24% of the overall population across the two EDs while those aged 65+ comprise 13% of Clooney's population.

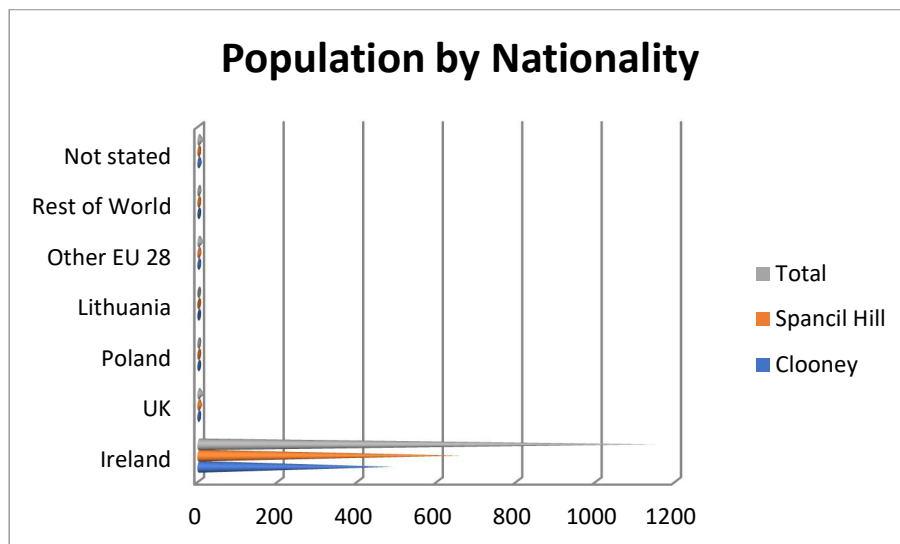

There are 362 children and young people aged under 18 years in Clooney, comprising 30% of the population.

It is also worth noting that the numbers of population experience a notable decline in the 20-34 age brackets and this is made more evident by a comparison of 2011 and 2016 figures. In particular the drop in the numbers of 25-29 year olds in both areas is particularly notable (n=28 or 55% reduction).

Clooney & Spancilhill Community Development Planning Process

In late 2018, a group of residents from Clooney and Spancilhill came together with concerns about their community. Despite the community's proximity to Ennis and its steadily growing population, the community had no venue for community activities or meetings, the number of pupils in the school was declining and there was frustration at the lack of progress on infrastructural needs such as road safety measures and broadband.

The group met several times with the Rural and Community Development Officer with Clare County Council and undertook a public consultation. A survey was developed and circulated, and a public meeting was held in February to ascertain residents' views on the Strengths, Challenges, Opportunities and Threats (SCOT) facing the community.

Having examined the results of the survey and the SCOT analysis, the group decided to formalise itself by electing officers and naming the new group the Clooney & Spancilhill Community Development Group (CSCDG). The new group moved quickly to form its first sub-groups:

- Tidy Towns
- Heritage & Walk Development
- Environmental Sustainability
- Broadband Development

At this point, the newly formed CSCDG started working with an independent consultant contracted by Clare Local Development Company. The consultant was tasked with pulling together this community development plan using demographic data from the Central Statistics Office and information gathered through the consultation actions.

The CSCDG committee will lobby for upgrade and improvements to priority blackspots -

In response to concerns about climate change and the Climate Emergency declared by the Irish Government, Clooney Spencilhill Community Development Group has decided to pursue actions to improve environmental sustainability.

- CSCDG will explore sustainable energy community initiatives and increase awareness of actions to reduce carbon emissions, e.g. home insulation grants and renewable energy initiatives.

Next Steps

This plan reflects the needs, interests and concerns of the community as identified by its residents in late 2018 and early 2019. Sub groups have been assigned to each prioritised action and a timeline given for completion; the steps required to implement each action will be determined by the sub group that has taken it on.

The planning group is extremely grateful to everyone in the community who assisted in this process, especially those who completed the survey and attended the public consultation meeting.
